Customer Reviews

I purchased this from a local music store, instead of buying this from . Reading the review above (which is a feat in and of itself!), I must wonder what that user expected from this book. The songs are well done, and are in fact "compatible" with mandolin. I have only had time to glance through and spend a little time on Blackbird, and the chord melodies for that song work beautifully for mandolin. I look forward to spending more quality time with this book after my deep dive into choro music ends!

Great book. I read notation but appreciate the tab for fingering suggestions. The selection of songs is good, too. I also use it for ukulele, although the tabs won't work for uke, of course.

Wonderful book for a beginner like me! My mandolin instructor was pretty impressed with it as well!
