Murder On The Orient Express: A Hercule Poirot Mystery (Mystery Masters)

Synopsis

On the elegant, plush Orient Express; the famous train from Istanbul to Paris; Ratchett, an imperious millionaire gangster, killer, kidnapper, and child abuser, confronts Inspector Hercule Poirot and offers the little Belgian $20,000 if he will help him stay alive. Poirot declines, adding, "I do not like your face, Monsieur." Later that evening, as the train sits halted and snowbound, Ratchett is found dead inside a room locked from the inside, a victim of multiple stab wounds. Clearly, the clever, ruthless killer is still on board the train. Detective Poirot must find the killer of the much-hated millionaire among thirteen suspects, each with a compelling reason to kill Ratchett. Can Poirot solve this baffling crime by the time the train reaches Paris? Read by David Suchet.

Customer Reviews

David Suchet reads "Orient Express" so well, giving every character his or her own voice, besides his unique Poirot voice that made him so famous

Excellent audio version of the Christie classic. David Suchet uses all his talents to create a listener's delight. He deftly maneuvers from the lilt of the female Swedish missionary to the strident tones of the American businessman. And of course among all this he delights us with his "Poirot" voice that we've all come to love and admire. Top rating for this audio item. Highly recommended
